

Dublin Communication Tower Base Station Construction Project

The project, proposed by the Energia Group subsidiary, sees the construction of two data buildings on the land in Finglas, Co Dublin. The data centres will be in collaboration with Microsoft.

First Major Design and Build Civils Contracts Announced for MetroLink MetroLink commences procurement with the release of contract notices for M401 and M402 contracts Each contract is responsible ...

The scheme will provide free, fast-track repairs up to a value of EUR45,000 for homeowners within 30 metres of the MetroLink line or within 50 metres of a station.

Planning permission is needed to build, demolish or significantly alter land or property use. You can view applications here.

Works are expected to commence in July 2021 on the #construction of a EUR10.9m - 8 storey office building in #Dublin 2. Works are expected to take in the region of 22 months to complete.

65m internal diameter bored emergency evacuation and ventilation tunnels (with cross over connections) under Dublin Airport, tunnel portals, two metro stations (one below-grade and one underground), a viaduct over the ...

CIÉ is seeking possession in High Court proceedings of a site in Dublin's city centre where a Johnny Ronan company has started work on what is planned to be Ireland's tallest office and hotel...

Thank you for registering for updates on the MetroLink Project. Please contact us at: info@metrolink.ie or Freephone 1800 333 777 if you have any queries relating to the project. If you longer want to receive updates ...

The project supports the advancement of Ireland to a low emissions transport system, while contributing to the country's sustainable economic development and population growth.

Located on the bank of the River Liffey in the heart of central Dublin, the Tara Street Station Redevelopment Project incorporates the busiest DART rail station in Ireland, a 16 story office tower, roof top restaurant, and ...

Dublin Communication Tower Base Station Construction Project

Web: <https://idsolar.co.za>