

Information to help you understand the North American Industry ...

The Global Industry Classification Standard (GICS) is an industry taxonomy developed in 1999 by MSCI and Standard & Poor's (S&P) for use by the global financial community.

An industry - or sector - is the whole of all economic activities by companies, people, and organizations involved in the production of goods and services for a particular field. Industries are usually ...

Industry Category Code List ... INDUSTRY CATEGORY CODES LIST - Continued ... INDUSTRY CATEGORY CODES LIST - Continued ... Page Last Revised - May 7, 2024

This list of industries included in Industries at a Glance is arranged in North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code order. Each industry sector and subsector is placed into the ...

Industry classification or industry taxonomy is a type of economic taxonomy that classifies companies, organizations and traders into industrial groupings based on similar production processes, similar ...

The North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) is the hierarchical, numerical system used by the Federal government to classify businesses by industry, in order to ...

GICS[®] is an industry analysis framework that helps investors understand the key business activities for companies around the world. MSCI and S&P Dow Jones Indices developed this classification ...

Information to help you understand the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), including the structure, sector definitions, & codes not covered.

Discover the Global Industry Classification Standard (GICS), a 4-level system by MSCI and S&P Dow Jones, classifying publicly traded companies to streamline investment decisions.

Industry classification refers to categorizing companies and enterprises into specific groups based on their nature, mode of operation, size, raw materials, ownership, and type. Some of the renowned ...

Web: <https://idsolar.co.za>